

12/5/2015 Sung to: At 17 by Janis Ian's

I never thought I get this far

By Now I figured I be in some Jar

But those in the air and those down there

Made pleas that their peace please be spared

So here I am with nowhere to go

Not wanted by friend or foe

Not knowing which side I could reside

Just Glad to be here and still be alive

Everyone both near and far

Are born under some stellar star

My parents thought it would be hilarious

If I were to born under Sagittarius

I remember well my first date

The night was young she said it was late

But before we got into it too far

I needed to tell her my dreaded star

I got very close and held her hand
And softly said I am but half man
She said she knew my star ever so well
And wasn't going to say anything, but what the hell

Then out of the mouth of this lovely lass
Came the other half of you is a horse's ass
Hey Good thing I took her to a dive
At seventy five I was old enough to drive.

I thank you all for coming tonight
To see you here is such a delight
And thank you for treating me like a star
But I must confess don't know who the hell you are

Please come back when you have a chance
For then I may even wear my pants
For the age of innocence I put aside
For being Alive at Seventy five
